- (b) Where the presiding officer has final decision—making authority, a person in a contested case who is aggrieved by an interlocutory order is entitled to judicial review if:
- (1) the party would qualify under this section for judicial review of any related final decision;
 - (2) the interlocutory order:
 - (i) determines rights and liabilities; and
 - (ii) has immediate legal consequences; and

- (2) If the agency has delegated to the Office the authority to issue the final administrative decision pursuant to § 10–205(a)(3) of this subtitle, and there are 2 or more other parties with adverse interests remaining in the case, the agency may decline to participate in the judicial review. An agency that declines to participate shall inform the court in its initial response.

- (f) (1) Judicial review of disputed issues of fact shall be confined to the record for judicial review supplemented by additional evidence taken pursuant to this section.

- 2. there were good reasons for the failure to offer the evidence in the proceeding before the presiding officer.
- (3) On the basis of the additional evidence, the final decision maker may modify the findings and decision.
- (4) The final decision maker shall file with the reviewing court, as part of the record:

 - (iii) results from an unlawful procedure;
 - (iv) is affected by any other error of law;
- (v) is unsupported by competent, material, and substantial evidence in light of the entire record as submitted;
